Description: The purpose and intent of this book is to offer help with those struggling to make sense of certain puzzling aspects that they encounter in the temple. It is also to help expand the knowledge and appreciation for those who already feel a deep love for the temple, who do not necessarily struggle as some individuals described in the introduction. My hope...

Review: I have read many books about the temple - architecture, symbolism, history, doctrine, etc. I found this remarkable book very readable, insightful and to the point. Dr. Line has a very clear style of writing that comes from his career as a teacher of young people. This book may be helpful for those preparing to receive their temple ordinances, but will...
